Republic Day Celebrations

As we celebrate the 58th Indian Republic Day, we cannot but agree with the vision of our great poet and philosopher, Rabindranath Tagore, 'where the mind is without fear and the head is held high...'

The President, Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam, in his message to the nation, spoke of an "ascending economic trajectory, global success of Indian managerial & entrepreneurial talents, global recognition of the technological competence", and has called for a "Developed India by 2020".

You are cordially invited!

New beginnings: A web-site to be proud of...

ICAEA which had its humble beginnings in early 1985, has today grown to over 100 families. Along with the nearly 250 Indian students, the Indian community makes a substantial presence in Auburn.

Under the dynamic leadership of Dr. A.M. Srikanta Rao, the 2007 ICAEA Executive Committee, with input from the members of the community, is making an effort to "bring about worthy changes through collaboration, commitment, and engagement."

To begin with, ICAEA has taken on the much-needed task of re-vamping its website to a more professional-looking and user-friendly website. Designed by Mr. Abraham George and Mr. Ananthkrishnan Narayanan, ICAEA can be proud of who we are today!

For program details, community pages, membership and other info, please visit our re-designed new website at:

This site is still in development. ICAEA and the technology committee solicit your input in making this website even better!
